EVRAZ encourages you to read these additional terms or policies before participating in or utilizing these campaigns, promotions, programs or websites/applications as the processing of your PII in this context will be governed by those additional privacy terms and/or policies.

This Policy consists of:

- this front section, which sets out the general principles applied by EVRAZ when processing PII; and Unless permitted by applicable law, no PII is collected without first obtaining the consent of the individual for the collection, use and disclosure of that PII. PII gathered in one country may be subject to access by and disclosure to law enforcement agencies of jurisdictions other than the country where the PII was first collected. EVRAZ also may share PII with organizations and entities that perform services on its behalf, and these organizations and entities may be located in countries other than the country in which the PII was first collected.

EVRAZ will endeavor to obtain appropriate and reasonably enforceable assurances from third parties, including its subsidiaries and affiliates, to which it discloses or transfers PII that these third parties will safeguard PII in a manner consistent with this Policy. A vertical decorative bar on the left side of the page, consisting of a series of horizontal orange and yellow stripes of varying lengths.

EVRAZ will endeavor to obtain the individual's consent prior to such transfer. ADDENDUM FOR INDIVIDUALS LOCATED IN (OR WHOSE PII IS PROCESSED BY EVRAZ ENTITIES ESTABLISHED IN) THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA (“EU ADDENDUM”)

This EU Addendum completes and supplements the front section of the Data Privacy Policy for PII originating from or processed in the EEA. In case of any contradictions between the front section of this Policy and the EU Addendum, the EU Addendum will have precedence.

The purpose of this EU Addendum is to provide the information required under the General Data Protection Regulation, applicable in the EEA as from May 25, 2018 (the "GDPR"), including:

- why and how the relevant EVRAZ entity collects, processes and stores your PII;
- what its role as “controller” of your PII involves; and
- what your rights and our obligations are in relation to this processing.

Definitions

For the purposes of the EU Addendum, the following definitions shall apply:

“Controller” generally means the legal entity that determines the purposes (i.e. why) and the means (i.e. how) of the processing of PII under this Policy.

“EVRAZ” means the legal entity within the EEA identified as the Controller under the paragraph “Controller” of this EU Addendum.

“Personally Identifiable Information” or “PII” means any information that constitutes “personal data” under the GDPR, namely any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person.

“Processor” means a natural or legal person that processes PII on behalf of the Controller. EVRAZ’s processors may be EVRAZ subsidiaries, affiliates or third-party suppliers and service providers. EVRAZ will conclude a data processing agreement with its Processors to ensure your PII is processed in accordance with the GDPR.

Controller

EVRAZ in the EEA is made up of different legal entities, i.e. Evraz plc and its affiliates. When we mention “EVRAZ”, “we,” “us,” or “our” in this addendum, we are referring to the relevant EVRAZ legal entity in the EEA that determines the purposes and means of processing your PII under this Policy. We will let you know which entity will be the Controller for your PII when we collect your PII.

Collection of PII

Your PII may be collected whenever EVRAZ:

- interacts with individuals who are prospective and existing customers/suppliers;
- interacts with individuals who are representatives or contact persons of prospective and existing customers/suppliers that are legal entities (e.g. for the selling/ordering of products or for marketing related purposes); or
- interacts with individuals who are past, existing and prospective employees and directors of EVRAZ.

Categories of PII Collected

We may collect:

- basic identification information, such as name, title, position, company name, email and/or postal address and the fixed and/or mobile phone number;
- administrative information (e.g. identity documents, birthdate, gender, language, etc.);
- numeric data (e.g. logs, IP address);
- biometric data (e.g. picture, sound, video);
- financial information (e.g. bank account details, credit card information, tax data, transactional data);
- any additional information you voluntarily provide, (e.g. by filling in a form or registering for an email newsletter).

This information may either be directly provided by the above individuals or provided by the legal entity for whom they work (e.g. if they are the contact person designated by their employer to manage the commercial relations with EVRAZ).

Consequences of a Refusal to Provide PII

You are not subject to any legal obligation to provide your PII to EVRAZ. However, access to and use of any goods or services provided by us may not be able to commence or continue if you do not provide such PII.

Legal Basis of the Processing

We are not allowed to process PII if we do not have a valid legal ground. Therefore, we will only process PII if:

- we have obtained your prior consent;
- the processing is necessary to perform our contractual obligations towards you or to take pre-contractual steps at your request;
- the processing is necessary to comply with our legal or regulatory obligations (e.g. tax or accounting requirements);
- the processing is necessary for the legitimate interests of EVRAZ and does not unduly affect your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms. Please note that, when processing your PII on this basis, we seek to maintain a balance between our legitimate interests and your privacy.

Examples of such 'legitimate interests' are:

- to buy products and services from our suppliers or from potential suppliers;

 - to prevent fraud or criminal activity, misuses of our products or services, as well as the security of our IT systems, architecture and networks;
 - to sell any part of our business or its assets or if substantially all of our assets are acquired by a third party, in which case PII could form part of one of the assets we sell; and
 - to meet our corporate and social responsibility objectives.

Third-Party Recipients

We may transfer PII to our employees (to the extent they need it to perform their tasks) and other EVRAZ affiliates. Such other companies will either act as another Controller (in which case you will be separately informed about this processing) or only process PII on behalf and upon request of the Controller (thereby acting as a Processor).

In addition, we may also transfer your PII to third party Processors that are not EVRAZ affiliates to complete the purposes listed above, to the extent they need it to carry out the instructions we have given to them.

Your PII may be disclosed to:

- EVRAZ's subcontractors, business partners and experts as well as external counsels, agents, auditors, banks and depositories;

Transfers outside the European Economic Area

A vertical decorative bar on the left side of the page, consisting of a series of horizontal bars in orange, red, and yellow, matching the EVRAZ logo colors.

- to countries which provide an adequate level of protection for personal data as decided by the European Commission or;
- to recipients under a suitable agreement which contains the legal requirements for such transfer.

You may request additional information in this respect and obtain a copy of the relevant safeguard we have put in place by exercising your rights as set out below (see section “Your Rights”).

We will retain your PII for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which we collected it, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

The criteria we use to determine retention periods for PII include: the purposes for which the PII is collected, legal statutory limitation periods, retention periods imposed by law, applicable contractual requirements and relevant industry standards.
